

Job Title: Sales Representative

Do you enjoy (and have patients) working with people? Do you enjoy decorating and DIY projects? Are you passionate about event planning or looking to gain experience in the events industry? Then we want you!

We are seeking positive, professional individuals to join our volunteer team to help ensure that each event is a success! As a volunteer you will help with set up and take down, leading a booth or edible stand, and other small task while also being a part of the experience.

CHEvents is a Dallas-based event company specializing in creating unforgettable celebrations and experiences. We're seeking enthusiastic volunteers to help bring our events to life; and ran smoothly.

What You'll Gain

- Hands-on experience in event planning, coordination, and execution
- Networking opportunities with industry professionals
- A chance to be part of exciting events
- Recognition for your hard work and contribution

What We Are Looking For

- Reliable and creative individuals who love working in a team setting
- Passion for event planning, customer service, and hospitality
- Fully available the day of events

A volunteer position could lead into a paid position
